Small Female Maltese x Shih Tzu Mix Dog

Milly is a very active sweet natured young dog who is learning to be confident in her daily life, obedience and manners training. She would ideally love a gentle, similar sized, well mannered dog to live with. Milly is looking for a quieter home with NO children or visiting children under the age of 12 years. Milly has gone through very extensive rehabilitation training and is looking for a local home (Mornington Peninsula area ONLY) so that ongoing training with her new family can continue. If you are not prepared to maintain training please DO NOT apply - the training is for the humans as well as the dog and needs to continue for her match to be completely successful :). She is used to other well mannered dogs who do not get in her face, however she will be quite happy on her own with her humans being committed to maintaining training. If you have another quiet well mannered small dog please request additional paperwork to fill out and understand that you will need to be prepared to do some basic training with YOUR dog (using the same methods as Milly is used to) so bo...
