

Hi, my name is Ruby

Sweet and calm

Female Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Ruby is a lovely young girl who is content to laze around the house and mostly keeps to herself. She has a few quite spots she like to sleep in, where she's unlikely to be annoyed by the other cats in care. She is happy to be patted and is never far away. Ruby is nervous of strangers and hasn't had the best start to life but given a chance to settle into her new home she will show you what a sweet girl she is. Ruby had some dental issues when she first came into care. With help from the vet we have gotten her oral health under control but it is something to be aware of in the future. It wouldn't hurt to feed her a dental biscuit to help avoid future dental issues. Ruby was another cat that came into care from the pound which is why she need time to settle into her new home. She has had a traumatic start to life and is looking for a loving family to show her all the perks of being a well loved house cat. Ruby is an easy going cat who gets along with the other rescue cats and is fine with calm dogs. She is usually found sleeping on the lounge, the incubator or sunning he...
