

Hi, my name is Wolf

Super Happy

Large Male Greyhound Dog

Wolf is a stunning large fawn boy who is sweet, kind and has a zest for life. He's super smart and exceptionally affectionate. Where you go - he will be pretty close by seeing if you need a hand with that. Having been in a foster home, he has the inside part of his new home already sorted. You provide the bed - he will provide the eye candy. He would be perfect for an active retired couple or someone who works from home and wants the company. He would be fine home alone as well, however he is such a cracker of a dog, he deserves to get the gold star of homes. He is rural friendly and currently hanging out with Kelpie's, Alpaca's, goats and chickens (caged in a difference area) so is the ultimate all-round hound. He does love a run so a full sized back yard where he can do his thing is what he has requested so no units, townhouse or pet parks please. He would also make the ideal second greyhound if you have already ben bitten by the bug. He does get a tad over excited with squeaky toys so a home that understands that is ideal. Located Near Nerriga he can be tra...
