Medium Female Border Collie Mix Dog

Hey hoomans! We are Tori and Ellie and we are sisters. Needless to say we have been together every single day of our lives and we feel very uncomfortable if kept apart, so we are looking for a new home that will take us in and make us part of the family. We are a little bit demanding on what make our new home the right home for us: . Our family should not have small hoomans but we are very happy with older and bigger ones. They should have experience with other doggies of a similar size and understand we might not always be ready for a lot of action and noise. . We will do very well in a home where we have both indoor and outdoor access but it needs to have a well fenced backyard, so no units or low or open fences. We are experts with our toilet training so will not give you messes to clean up. . We live for cuddles, so much so, sometimes we get on each other's nerves trying to own the hoomans around us. Saying that, we will not do well with the "dog lover" personalities, but will thrive with having the hoomans telling us what to do and when to do it. We love structure and di...
