

Hi, my name is Buddy

Loving, happy boy

Large Male Boxer x Australian Cattle Dog Mix Dog

Buddy was brought into the vet with what turned out to be a dislocated hip. The vet put the hip back in, but it immediately popped out again. The vet explained to the owners that Buddy needed surgery to correct the problem, but instead the owners surrendered him to us. He had his surgery (basically replacing the ball part with a silicone one) and he recovered beautifully. He now has no problem at all and no pain. What an absolute delight Buddy is! He has loved his time with his foster carer (who he completely adores) She has diligently made sure his rehabilitation has been carried out correctly, and as such, he is now living his best life. As you can see from the pics and vids Buddy loves to play - either with the other two dogs who are at his foster carers home, or with toys. At almost six months old, he is still very much a puppy, and basically his day consists of eating, playing and sleeping! All of which he enjoys! Once he is adopted he would love to start puppy pre school. He is now a couple of months post surgery and has finished his rehab and ready for his foreve...
