

Hi, my name is Spooky

Gorgeous despite the name

Female Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Spare a thought for people like me who write these profiles, but don't own the naming rights to the animals! This gorgeous, stunning, sweet and loving girl is Spooky. Yep, you heard me right. Her name is Spooky. Her foster mum could have called her Kooky or Suki or even Pooky, but she named her Spooky, which is a name that does not do justice to this lovely young adult female. Sigh! Spooky has a silky soft, medium-length grey coat and a simply magnificently fluffy tail, which she refused point blank to show to the photographer. But you can see a tip of it curled neatly around her body in the second photo. Sweet and loving once she gets to know you, Spooky has a temperament that perfectly matches her good looks. She loves a good snuggle in bed and the odd cuddle on the couch. She is also dog- and cat-friendly. Her adoption fee is $300 and she is desexed, vaccinated and microchipped. She lives inside exclusively and is litter-trained. Breaking news - Spooky was originally thought to be male and came into care around Halloween with two other cats, Spectre an...
