Adopt Love!

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Meet our little torti babies who were found out at Wedgefield after their mumma Nutmeg was surrendered to SAFE - it was believe her babies had perished but the owner had found them couple of days later and reunited with mumma Nutmeg. These kittens are very lovely and love humans. They are also very tolerant of children as their carer found out recently when the carer's friend bought his grandchildren over to visit. They are respectful of the resident felines and have not been tested with dogs. All varieties of tortishell in this group and none of the torti-tude (yet).
