I am young, playful, and looking for my forever home. I can chase a ball around the room but I also love playing with humans. I'm super gentle, sweet, and affectionate. I never scratch or bite! I'm very smoochy. I love to be with humans so I will follow you around and turn up wherever you are. I am very comfortable with noise and will even follow the vacuum cleaner around! I am learning to be a lap cat and being cuddled. I do love a good tummy rub. I don't ask for much and I have a simple diet so I'm easy to look after. I have tested FIV+. My vet told me that I can have a normal healthy long life but if there are other cats in our home, they should be either FIV vaccinated, or FIV+. It is very hard for me to pass it along to any other feline housemates as it's usually passed along by deep bites, and I can't pass it along to...
