

Hi, my name is Cooper

Confident & playful

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Cooper is a very confident and caring teenager who's eager to meet and play with new people, including children over 5. He will play for hours, with his toys, with you, and with his siblings. And when he's exhausted he will flop down beside you and rest his head on your leg or your shoulder. He's a purr machine and loves pats. He won't take long to claim you as his own, and when he does you can expect kisses, head boops and snuggles, and will happily allow you to pick him up and carry him around in your arms. He will even attempt to groom you! He's very enquisitive and mischievous, fascinated by the shower and the bathtub, whether you're in it or not! So please be careful to empty the tub before leaving the bathroom. He's also keen on close inspection of your own toileting habits, so if you like your privacy you may want to close the door! He chirps and trills to get your attention and will look upon you with his loving eyes and gorgeous face. Cooper is such a good looking and good natured boy, with huge almond shaped eyes, sleek physique, long legs, and big feet, he ...
