

Hi, my name is Ginger Ale

Chatty Boy

Male Domestic Short Hair Cat

Ginger Ale was found in a garden at 2 days old with his siblings and mumma. They were brought into care where once his mumma was back up to health she nursed them while he also had all the benefits of a comfy human home. He worked out very quickly that humans are pretty cool, especially the ones who give him all his food and love. This adorable Ginger boy is looking for his forever family to chat with and love on him. Ginger is looking for an adoptive family who have lots of comfy beds for him to sleep on and some humans who enjoy cuddling him. He has a very big voice who he likes to use very regularly, he has found he can make all different sounds to communicate with his humans. His ideal forever family will have plenty of company for him and enjoy having a snuggly kitten in bed with them.

Ginger is your typical kitten who is intrigued by everything, learning all about the world around him, his favourite part of the world around him is humans and all the cuddles he can enjoy. Ginger Ale loves his feline siblings but would be happy in a home solo just as much, as long as he ...
