Clever and sweet tortie

Female Domestic Short Hair Cat

Hi everyone! I'm Maeve and I'm still looking for my forever home. I am clever and confident, inquisitive, playful and love exploring my surroundings. I am personality plus! I definitely have a lot of the tortie attitude - but not the angst. I have quickly made myself queen of the house, I'm not at all intimidated by the big cats or the family dog. I am SMART too and have quickly learned my name. I AM affectionate, but it's on my own terms. During the night when I'm tired I will curl up next to you and might annoyingly start licking your nose. Pats are good when I'm in the mood for them and have a very loud purr. But I'm not that keen to be picked up, I'll tolerate it but I'll sometimes meow in complaint as I often have far more important things to do. I have bonded with my foster siblings (four other adult cats and a friendly rescue dog) who adore me and have welcomed me into their squad. I follow them around, we curl up together and groom each other. A note from my foster mum - Maeve's personality has really become apparent. She is a quirky, independent but loveable...
