

Hi, my name is Beanz

Family /Companion Pet

Medium Male Border Collie Mix Dog

Beans is a border collie mix : really don't know we what ??? We think he is about 12 months old, he's very pup like, loves to rump and frolic and you can really see the pup like characteristics when he is playing. Beans thanks all other Pooches should be his best friend and he has no problem running across the playground and jumping on somebody expecting them to play. He hasn't had much training prior to coming into care so we started to focus on some lead work and he is very responsive and we think will be quite easy to train with some consistency and routine. He is a really sweet, happy, fun pup that would suit a family with older children or an active couple: any situation where he won't be alone in a yard all day but rather included in activities taken for walks and outings and included in weekend Adventures.
