

Hi, my name is Shaun

I'm a sweet-natured boy

Male Domestic Medium Hair Cat

Shy and Sweet Shaun is looking for his forever family Shaun came into rescue off the streets, with an ear infection. Then this gorgeous boy had an allergic reaction to his vaccination. During the extra time spent with him, his foster carer realised he was such a sweetie pie, that needs a special family of his own (perhaps with older children or no children). Shaun is in perfect health and has recently had all his vet work completed. Shaun has been: - tried with children and is a little scared of the noisy ones - tried with other cats and kittens and loves them - untried with dogs Shaun's adoption fee of $210 includes: - Desexing - Vaccination - Microchip - Flea and worm treatments up to date of adoption - Litter training - Socialisation - An adoption pack with some of his current wet and dry food, a carrier blanket, a set of toys and other goodies to get him started. Shaun is available to meet at his foster carer's home in Christie Downs, however social distancing will take place and potential adopters must agree to wear masks if required. Shaun is to ...
