

Hi, my name is Leroy

Super chilled

Medium Male Staffy Mix Dog

Our handsome Leroy is ready to start interviewing for his perfect home. We're looking for a very special home for this amazing almost 10yr young gent. In his twilight years a nice quiet home, comfy, but firm bed (Leroy has let his foster Mum know that he prefers a firm mattress), good food and lots of love is a must. Leroy is the most loving and super chilled man you could ever hope to meet. He just loves his people and cuddles and snuggles are the most important thing in the world to him very, very closely followed by his love for food. Leroy would be very happy as an only dog with a family that is home more often than not. He is extremely social with all dogs but we think he would prefer to be the centre of his humans world and he is not really interested in doggy companionship, he just loves his people! He has plenty of energy and would love a daily walk to stretch his legs and sniff out his surroundings, so don't let his age scare you! Leroy loves the water too so some dam swims or even beach visits would go down well. So time for the serious news; On coming...
