

Hi, my name is Rupert

Looking for love

Small Male Pug Dog

Our darling Rupert (Roo) is ready to find his forever family. Rupert is a pint sized pug at just 4kgs. This handsome dude is as much as a Pug can get. He is over the top, over playful, over loving, and an over shedder, an over eater, an over drooler and most of all an over lover. Mr

Rupert, was born with a cleft palate, this is an opening in the roof of his mouth that limits what he can eat and drink and how much he slobbers but of course as you can see this hasn't stopped Rupert from living life to the fullest. Rupert has not and wont be having his cleft repaired. Rupert does well on the diet he is given and copes and is gaining weight well.

Rupert being a Brachy breed has also had his stenotic nares widened and his tonsils removed. Rupert would require a strict diet.... Kibble (Royal Canin French bulldog) and water only, but hey he doesn't mind that at all. Rupert has some manners, he can sit, walk on a harness and leash, did we say sit? and walk on a leash? Rupert is a true darling man that is looking for his equally exciting family to spend his time with.
