

Hi, my name is Rocky 34344

Campbelltown Acf

Playful long boy

Medium Female Greyhound x Staffordshire Bull Terrier Mix Dog

Heya! My name is Rocky. I've been told that's a pretty typical dog name, so my nickname is Stretch Armstrong. I don't know if I need to explain that one to you, but just incase, its because I'm a tall, long boy! Apparently I have this thing in me called a microchip and it told the people here that I'm a husky cross staffy. I din't know my mum and dad but I am no arctic breed! I am not made for the cold! Ideally I need to put on a little more weight, but now too much. I'm meant to be a slim boy. I basically have trampolines in my feet, I can bounce real high! I've been told I'm not supposed to though, and that people don't like it. So you will probably need to remind me not to do that. I do need some help with training as well, I havent had any! I would be best suited to a home with older kids because of my bouncy nature. I would love an active family! I have been tested with another dog, and despite my boisterous personaility I actually did really well. I'm open to meeting other dogs and we can see how it goes. Put in an expression of interest today and lets meet!
